

PLANS BEING MADE FOR GOLD TICKET

IDEA OF THE INDIANAPOLIS CONVENTION.

Watterson of Kentucky Is the Man Most Talked of as Leader—Letter From President Cleveland Expected To Be Read—City Is Gaily Decorated—Many Want Rooms.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 31.—There has been more or less gossip over the probability of Mr. Cleveland's name coming before the convention of the gold democrats, and word reached this city Sunday that some of the New York delegates were favorably inclined Clevelandwise, but the few delegates who are in the city said Mr. Cleveland was never regarded as a candidate. John P. Hopkins of Chicago said that all of the delegates who will meet in

HENRY WATTERSON.

Tomlinson's hall Wednesday were friendly to Mr. Cleveland, but that there was little prospect of Mr. Cleveland being nominated. "Watterson is the man who will get it," said Mr. Hopkins; "the ticket will be Watterson and Moran, and Illinois will give 100,000 votes to that ticket."

Chairman Bynum of the national executive committee arrived Sunday. He is enthusiastic over the outlook.

The impression is that the convention will be a two-days' affair. According to the programme the convention will adjourn Wednesday, after Gov. Flower's speech, to permit the committee to do their work. Thursday morning the convention will elect its permanent chairman and the platform will be adopted and ticket named without adjourning or taking a recess until all the business is completed.

The matter of a name for the new party has been a topic of considerable discussion. It is probable that the name "national democracy" will be the official title of the party, and it has been decided that the device will be the head of Jefferson.

J. Sterling Morton, secretary of agriculture, is expected to attend the convention. Letters addressed to him have come to the headquarters, and there is a strong hope expressed that he will bring with him a letter from President Cleveland to be read in the convention. There is a belief here that the president is in full sympathy with the movement, and will in some way make a strong appeal to democrats to support the platform and nominees of the Indianapolis convention.

Unless there shall be some unforeseen stumbling block, Roswell P. Flower, ex-governor of New York, will be the temporary chairman and Donelson Caffrey, United States senator from Louisiana, permanent chairman. Both men have accepted the positions, and although they will not be formally elected until the meeting of the national committee Tuesday, both men have been asked by telegraph to come with speeches that will put warm blood in the anti-silver democrats throughout the country.

When Chairman Bynum of the executive committee, Secretary Wilson of the national committee or any of those officials connected with the movement are asked about the movement for Cleveland, they declare that it is to be a convention of the president's friends and will not do anything that will offend him. It would not renominate him without his consent, they say, and they do not believe for a minute that he would consent to lead the party, although they have reason to believe he is in sympathy with the movement. The men most active in the Watterson movement are charging that the executive committee has been exerting its influence in the direction of Vilas, and has been crippling the Watterson boom by giving out the impression that President Cleveland favors the nomination of the Wisconsin senator. The few representatives of the party here, however, believe the middle Western states, for which this movement was started primarily, will be allowed to name the candidate for first place. If this should prove to be true Watterson would, it is believed, stand the best show, for Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky and perhaps other states will stand ready to support him from the start. It seems certain that the Watterson people will be the aggressive ones when the contest is fairly on.

There have been stories afloat to the effect that the republican organization was assisting in bearing the expenses of the organization, but there does not seem to be any foundation for them. It is also announced from different localities in this state that all anti-silver democrats who desire to attend the

MR. BRYAN RESTING AFTER WEEK'S WORK

THE POPOCRATIC CANDIDATE SPENDS QUIET SUNDAY.

Despite Speeches Made Every Day During His Trip Through New York State, He Is In Full Health and Vigor—Some Other Political Stories.

Jamestown, N. Y., Aug. 31.—Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bryan on Sunday enjoyed a day of ease after a week of campaigning, which has included speeches in the largest inland cities of the state, in two or three farming centers, and many short ones from car platforms. Two or three and sometimes more long speeches have been made by Mr. Bryan each day, and the intervals between have been spent in traveling by train or carriage. Every morning he has been up at 6 o'clock, and not before 1. He has been able to secure sleep. The week with him has been a season of unremitting turmoil. Despite this continuous strain Mr. Bryan is looking almost as fresh as a week ago. Today he left New York state, probably to return in October, when he will speak in Brooklyn and other places.

Mr. Bryan spoke Saturday night in the convention hall at Celeron, on Lake Chautauqua, two miles from this city. The determination of twice as many people as the hall could hold to hear the presidential candidate resulted in a crush which would have ended in great loss of life if the panic, which for half an hour seemed imminent, had not been prevented. The hall contains seats for 8,000 persons, but fully 12,000 were packed into its frail walls, fighting for more standing room an hour before the speechmaking. Word was finally shouted that Mr. Sibley would make an outdoor speech. Thirty-five minutes after Mr. Bryan had made his first attempt to speak he made the second beginning, and the speech was providentially finished without accident. On the trip from Hornellsville, where Mr. Bryan spoke in the afternoon, to Jamestown, the train passed small groups of country people gathered to see it go by. Stops were made at Cuba, Clean and Salamanaca. Mr. Bryan stood bareheaded under the blazing sun at Hornellsville in the afternoon and addressed the enormous crowd attending the farmers' fair.

TO UNITE RAILROAD ORDERS.

Representatives of Five Great Organizations Meet in Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 31.—A meeting of the representatives of the different railroad brotherhoods was held in this city Sunday to consider the advisability of a federation among the brotherhoods. There were present at the meeting P. M. Arthur, grand chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers; P. H. Morrissey, grand master of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen; Frank P. Sargent, grand master of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen; E. E. Clark, chief conductor of the Order of Railway Conductors; J. R. T. Austin, grand secretary and treasurer of the Order of Railway Telegraphers; G. W. L. Brown, deputy grand chief of the same order, and others prominent in railroad labor organizations. The result of the meeting was the adoption of the following resolution: "That it is the sense of the members of the five brotherhoods of railroad organizations, in union meeting at Indianapolis assembled, that we are in favor of federation, and that it be accomplished as soon as possible."

The adoption of this resolution does not by any means insure the federation, but will undoubtedly renew the agitation in favor thereof to such an extent that the federation will follow in the near future.

DIES NEAR HIS CZAR

Russian Minister of Foreign Affairs Resigns His Portfolio.

London, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to the Telegraph from Kiev says that Prince Lobanoff-Rostovsky, Russian minister of foreign affairs, died suddenly while traveling from Vienna to that place. Prince Lobanoff-Rostovsky was in the company of the czar at the time of his death, and his demise was wholly without warning.

The news of the death of Prince Lobanoff-Rostovsky, according to the dispatch to the Telegraph, caused great excitement throughout Russia, where the personality of the minister of foreign affairs was considered to be second only to the czar himself. Prince Lobanoff-Rostovsky pursued a strong foreign policy—a policy which was regarded in some quarters as threatening the peace of the world. His death at the present juncture is regarded as a most dramatic and important event, upsetting as it does all possibilities of conferences between the foreign ministers of the great powers and compelling the czar to change the plans concerning his tour through Germany, France and England.

Morrison Talks of the Outlook.

New York, Aug. 31.—Ex-Congressman William R. Morrison of Illinois is at the Fifth Avenue hotel. He has been in New England and the other eastern states for some time. In regard to the political situation Mr. Morrison said: "The race is not yet won. The battleground is to be the states of Minnesota, Iowa, Michigan, Illinois and Indiana. The republicans will have to do some hard fighting to win in those states. I think that Bryan will carry most of the so-called silver states, but he is likely to have a close call in both California and Oregon."

Politics in Iowa.

Des Moines, Iowa, Aug. 31.—The fusion agreement entered into by silver democrats, populists and silver republicans at the Ottumwa convention has been carried out in the congressional conventions thus far held and in the conventions for the nomination of county tickets. Usually the populists and silver republicans have received the lion's share of the nominations.

Religious Work at Freeport, Ill.

Freeport, Ill., Aug. 31.—Over 10,000 people were on the grounds at Oakdale park Sunday, the second Sunday of the annual camp meeting of the United Evangelical church. The Rev. B. J. Smoyer, presiding elder of the Lebanon (Pa.) district, delivered two sermons, and the Rev. E. K. Yeakel preached in English. The Sunday school had the names of over 1,400 pupils on the roll. The number of converts was large. The meeting closed this forenoon with the baptismal at 9:30 o'clock, followed by a sacramental service.

Rhodes and Martin at Odds.

London, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to the Telegraph from Bulawayo says that it is reported that a serious disagreement has occurred between Cecil Rhodes and General Martin, the latter demanding the unconditional surrender of all of the Matabeles.

MEN WHO FOUGHT MEET AT ST. PAUL

CIVIL WAR VETERANS IN LINE ONCE MORE.

Thousands of the Heroes of the Rebellion Make Ready to Camp Out in Army Style—No Politics to Be Introduced at the Meeting.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 31.—Veterans of the civil war arrived here from all points of the compass all day Sunday. Most of the arrivals were by train, but several large parties came in from Minnesota points by train, soldier fashion, carrying their tents and forage with them. Gen. Walker, commander-in-chief, and his staff arrived here early this morning and set about putting the encampment of 1896 on its feet.

There will be no other formal programme until 8:30 o'clock this evening, when a reception will be given to the Commander-in-Chief and Mrs. Walker by the citizens' committee and citizens of St. Paul at Hotel Ryan. From 8 to 12 o'clock a reception will be given to the Woman's Relief Corps, Sons and Daughters of Veterans in the senate chamber at the state capitol. During the same hours the military order of the Loyal Legion, commandery of Minnesota, will entertain visiting members of the order.

The physicians of the city have been organized into medical, surgical and ambulance corps. The work has been done systematically, and physicians will be stationed every few feet along the line of parade on Wednesday, ready to give assistance to any veterans who may need it. If the weather remains as cool as it is now there will be but slight need of medical attention, but if the day should be excessively warm the physicians will have all they can attend to. Twenty leading doctors will be stationed at Camp Mason during the whole week.

The principal spectacle of Tuesday will be the parade of the naval veterans and the ex-prisoners of war, escorted by the 3d United States infantry, which will be reviewed from the Ryan hotel by Commander-in-Chief Walker.

Tuesday afternoon will take place the reunion of Minnesota troops at the state capitol at 1 o'clock, and at Fort Snelling, where they will be entertained by Col. Page, commandant.

Tuesday evening the women of the citizens' committee will hold an open-air reception at Summit park and Summit avenue. On the main platform at Summit park will be stationed Gen. Walker and his staff and a few of the distinguished guests.

Wednesday at 10 o'clock the grand parade of the Grand Army of the Republic will start, and this event is looked forward to with great expectation by all. The parade will be under command of Commander-in-Chief Walker and it is estimated that there will be 30,000 to 40,000 veterans in line.

The politics of the gathering will come off Thursday. There will be chosen the new commander-in-chief and the place of the next encampment will be named. There are several men who want to step into the shoes of Gen. Walker. Talks around the hotels and at Camp Mason indicate that T. S. Clarkson, ex-postmaster of Omaha, has more friends than any other candidate now in the field. It is said that there is already some sort of an understanding among the posts of Minnesota, the Dakotas and Nebraska that Clarkson is to have their votes. There seems to be a general feeling that the next encampment will be voted to Buffalo unanimously.

Several leading veterans were seen regarding the rumor sent broadcast over the country that the Grand Army of the Republic would pass a resolution in favor of gold. They characterized it as rubbish. Several of them said they were strongly in favor of gold, and as citizens and voters would like to pass resolutions expressing their belief, but that there was no danger whatever of an attempt to pass such a resolution by the old soldiers. The Grand Army of the Republic, they said, was a non-political organization, and it would not do to hurt the feelings of free-silver men in the organization by even discussing the money question in its official sessions.

TO VISIT MCKINLEY.

Two Notable Delegations Go to Canton This Week.

Canton, O., Aug. 31.—Maj. McKinley attended religious services Sunday, accompanied by Ben Butterworth, who arrived from Washington Saturday and remained a guest at the McKinley home over Sunday, and Joseph P. Smith. He went to the First United Brethren church, where Bishop Mills of Iowa delivered the principal discourse.

The first delegation announced for this week is that of the editors of West Virginia. They come on Tuesday. Workingmen of Lorain, O., have decided to visit Canton. There are 1,500 in the party and they will come here the latter part of the week or the first of next. A notable delegation will be here on Saturday. It comes from Beaver, Pa., the home of Senator Quay. The senator himself is expected to head the delegation.

Peoria Is All Ready.

Peoria, Ill., Aug. 31.—All the preparations have been completed for the annual convention of the League of Republican clubs, to be held in this city next week. The meetings will be held in the tabernacle, on which a committee has been at work for some time. The programme of the convention has been practically completed. The reception committee will meet the visitors Monday evening and Tuesday morning. The first session of the convention will be held Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. At the afternoon session the annual election of officers will take place, and Gov. Hastings will deliver an address. There will be speeches by other well-known republican leaders. Reports indicate the arrival of several thousand visitors early Tuesday morning, and the officers of the league expect one of the most successful meetings in the history of their organization.

Indiana Coal Operators Meet.

Terre Haute, Ind., Aug. 31.—The Indiana bituminous operators had a secret meeting at Indianapolis Saturday night to consider the strike situation, now that President Ogle of the Island City Coal company, who is vice-president of the Operators' association, has broken the agreement and acceded to the demands of the men for 60 cents. It was reported that no other operators contemplate following his example and the meeting unanimously decided to insist on the 55 cent price if the mines remain idle until the end of the scale year, next May. President Knight of the miners' association says the action of Operator Ogle practically settles the strike and that soon the men will be at work everywhere in the state at 60 cents.

Glass Workers Will Quit Work.

Beaver Falls, Pa., Aug. 31.—A meeting of the employees of the Rochester Tumbler works was held in Freedom Sunday, and by an almost unanimous vote it was decided not to accept the 20 per cent reduction proposed by the firm. The reduction included every employe in the plant. The men at the request of the company agreed to work out the glass now in the pots at the old wages, after which they will refuse to continue until their old wages are restored.

Campaign Plans in Michigan.

Detroit, Aug. 31.—The republican campaign in Michigan will open early in September. Governor Daniel H. Hastings of Pennsylvania will be the first speaker of national reputation to visit the state. He will be here Thursday. Senator Thurston will come early in the season, and ex-President Harrison will also be an early visitor. The gold democrats will bring Bourke Cockran into the state for two or three speeches as early as possible.

Weyler's Decrees Approved.

London, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to the Standard from Madrid says that the Spanish government has approved of the conduct of Captain General Weyler and of his issuance of the order, prohibiting the people of Cuba and foreigners resident in Cuba from having any intercourse with the foreigners outside the Island of Cuba, and also his much-discussed decree prohibiting the gathering of the sugar and coffee crops.

Revolt in the Philippines.

Madrid, Aug. 31.—Official telegrams received here from Capt.-Gen. Blanco, governor of the Philippine islands, announce that a thousand rebels took the field against the Spanish forces for the purpose of bringing about a revolution. The insurgents were badly armed and easily defeated. The Spanish ministry has decided to send 2,000 troops to the Philippine islands without delay.

Trouble in Illinois Coal Fields.

Mascoutah, Ill., Aug. 31.—The coal miners employed in this district are dissatisfied with the present wages, and have made a formal demand on the operators for a raise of 10 cents per ton. A meeting has been arranged for Tuesday, and unless a settlement is made then the miners threaten to go on strike. About 2,000 men are employed in the mines of St. Clair county.

Echo of the Diamond Match Failure.

Chicago, Aug. 31.—The members of the pool behind the Moore brothers in their Diamond Match speculation are willing to contribute $200,000 to a relief fund for the brokers who executed orders for the Moores just prior to the closing of the local exchange.

BADGER GOLD MEN

MUCH CAST DOWN

'REAL DEMOCRATS' ARE NOW QUITE GLOOMY.

The "Old Familiar Faces" Will Be Missed At the State Convention On Wednesday—W. P. Lyon On the State Board of Control—Other Wisconsin News.

Madison, Wis., Aug. 31.—Old-time leaders will be missed at the Wisconsin democratic state convention in Milwaukee Wednesday. The prospective control of the convention by the silver men and the failure of the compromise plan has caused the majority of the gold leaders to decide to remain away. Gen. Bragg's plan of putting a gold democratic ticket in the field is looked upon with apprehension by the leading democrats. Senator Vilas' opposition to Bragg's programme has rendered improbable the carrying out of the plan to read Vilas out of the party, which has been agitated by some of the silver men. Vilas' programme of "let alone" is likely to be the gold men's policy.

The certainty of fusion between the populists and the democracy has inspired the democratic leaders with confidence of success. In the last campaign the people's party cast over 25,000 votes, or about one-fifteenth of the entire vote for governor. An alliance with this great body of voters will more than compensate the democrats for the loss sustained through the defection of the bolters. It is believed that a large number of the bolters will vote the state democratic ticket straight.

Either Colonel Bouck of Oshkosh or ex-Mayor Rogers of Madison will be the nominee for governor by the convention. Colonel Bouck says he doesn't want the office, and may at the last moment absolutely decline, leaving the field to Rogers.

Warner's Successor Named.

Madison, Wis., Aug. 31.—William Penn Lyon, ex-chief justice of the Wisconsin Supreme court, has been appointed by Gov. Upham as a member of the state board of control to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Hans B. Warner. Nearly fifty applications for the position were filed in the executive office, the greater number being from the 10th congressional district.

Rain Stops Forest Fires.

Ashland, Wis., Aug. 31.—Heavy thunder showers Saturday afternoon quenched the forest fires. The wind has subsided and the homesteaders breathe easier. The losses of lumber at Benoit are as follows: Charles Crogster, 450,000 feet; A. McKinnon, 250,000; Emerson & Johnson, 250,000; M. Hubbard, 4,100,000. Total, 5,052,000.

Run Down by a Passenger Train.

Eau Claire, Wis., Aug. 31.—A farmer, his wife and child and four other persons crossing the Omaha track near Fall Creek Sunday morning in a wagon were struck by a passenger train. The woman and child are reported fatally injured. The names cannot be learned. Both horses were killed.

BASEBALL REPORT.

Standing of the Clubs in the National and Western Leagues.

The fight for second place in the National league is on. Baltimore has all her games at home save three, those at New York to close with. Cincinnati must yet face Philadelphia, New York and Brooklyn before coming home, and then its only easy club is Louisville. Cleveland draws three each from Cincinnati and Chicago and finishes at Louisville while Chicago is playing Cincinnati. Cleveland is still playing good ball indifferently because hope is dead, but a chance of the cup money may bring Tebeau's men back into fighting trim. Boston has profited by the hard luck of Pittsburgh and given the Pirates a shove farther down the ladder. The margin is so narrow that a day's battle will close it out.

JOHN H. SULLIVAN
COMMITTS SUICIDE

DRANK THREE OUNCES OF LAUDANUM YESTERDAY.

Dr. Joe Whiting Kept Him Alive For Five Hours. But Death Came In Spite of His Hard Work—Sick
An Hour Before He Was Found.

John H. Sullivan, of this city, committed suicide in quite a theatrical manner yesterday, and died six hours after swallowing three ounces of laudanum. Dr. Joe Whiting kept him alive for that length of time by means of artificial respiration, but the end finally came in spite of the fact that the doctor worked over him, without intermission, from 9 o'clock a. m. until 4 o'clock p. m.

Sullivan came down town between 8 and 9 o'clock yesterday morning.
He met several acquaintances on the street, making the remark that he was going to "leave soon" and that they "had better say good bye." No importance was attached to the remarks, however, as Sullivan always had a pleasant word, or a joke, on his tongue's end, and people thought that his remarks were mere pleasantries.

But his mind was made up, and before the sun went down, he lay cold in death at the undertaking rooms of Daniel Ryan, on South Main street.

Told a Good Story.
Sullivan came down Milwaukee street from his home, and crossing the river, entered C. D. Stevens' drug store.

"I have just had a tooth pulled," he said to one of the clerks, "and the dentist nearly pulled my jaw out. It is very painful, and I want some laudanum."

"Do you know how to use it?" the clerk asked.

"Yes," Sullivan replied. "I have been using it for the pain in my face,
and know all about it."

"How much do you want?"

"I have been buying ten cents
worth," said Sullivan, "but I guess I'll take twenty cents worth today."

"What is your name? I will have to register the sale?"

"John H. Sullivan."

The clerk questioned Sullivan at some length, but his story was plausible, so the clerk sold him the poison. Sullivan paid for it, slipping the bottle into his pocket, left the store. Just outside he met an acquaintance and shook hands with him.

Got His Last Shave.
Sullivan then walked across the bridge, speaking to the acquaintances, that he met. To several he made the remark that he would soon "quit," as he expressed it, but all laugh d at him, and took the remark as a joke.
Seeing that the door of Wiesbe's barber shop was open, Sullivan entered the shop.

"I want to get shaved," he said.
"This is Sunday replied one of the men," and we do not work today."

"But this is the last time I will sit in the chair," said Sullivan. "I want you to shave me, and come to my funeral."

A joking answer was made to him,
but Sullivan insisted that he must be shaved. Finally one of the men suggested that perhaps Leonard Artis, the porter, would do the job, and Artis consented.

"All right," said Sullivan, "in just a minute."

He then walked to the back end of the shop, and entered the first bath room. The men saw him enter, and thinking he was looking for the back door, called to him:

"That is the bath room."

"All right," said Sullivan, emerging.
"I am ready now."

Swallowed the Drug.
Sullivan then turned and came back,
but in the brief moment that he was in the room, he had extracted the cork of the bottle, and drank the drug that cut his existence short. As he reached the chair, he pulled the bottle from his pocket, and asked one of the men to break it. The man refused.

"All right," said Sullivan, "I'll break it myself." Suiting the action to the word, he dashed the bottle to the floor, breaking it into atoms.

"Now I am ready for my last shave,"
he said as he got into the chair. Artis then began to shave Sullivan, the latter talking all the time. Artis' razor slipped once, and made a slight cut on Sullivan's chin.

"There, I cut you," said Artis.

"Oh that's all right," said Sullivan,
"I wish you would cut my throat.
Will you come to my funeral?"

Artis then finished the operation of shaving Sullivan and when the job was completed, Sullivan got up from the chair and handed Artis a quarter telling him "that is all right."

Found Unconscious.
About this time Michael McKinney was leaving his home in the Second ward to come to town. He was walking down East Milwaukee street and found Sullivan sitting in front of the Gherke bakery. McKinney tried to rouse Sullivan, but could not. Mc-Kinney then carried him down to Bluff street and was in search of an officer. Meeting ex-Sheriff Bear, Mc-Kinney told him of Sullivan's condition, saying that he was either very sick, or very drunk. "Sullivan
had a bottle of poison at the barber shop this morning," some one said, so the ex-sheriff at once went to the place where Sullivan lay. The latter was unconscious so a buggy was procured and a telephone message was sent to Dr. Joe Whiting.

Poison's Work Was Done.
One glance at the patient showed the doctor that prompt measures were necessary. The sick man was lying on a table in the hall. His ears were discolored, and there was no sign of life. The stomach pump was applied, but nothing could be raised.

Remedies were applied, and the doctor then began artificial respiration, in hopes of keeping the life in Sullivan's body until the reaction set in, although he realized that the chance of saving the sick man, was a very slim one.

"Of course there is one chance," he said in response to a question. "It is a small one, but we will do the best we can."

The table on which Sullivan lay,
was near the window in the corridor
of the building. Sullivan's coat, vest and suspenders had been removed, and he was laid flat upon his back, with blankets under his head.

Was an Touching Sight.

Dr. Whiting removed his coat, and began the work that was to last nearly all day. Sullivan's face was deathly white, but his ears had already assumed a dark shade. Taking Sullivan's wrists in his hands, the doctor crossed the sick man's forearms across the chest and stomach, and pressed downward with considerable force.

Straightening out the sick man's arms as far as possible, and bending the elbows outward, the doctor brought the arms around back of the patient's head, and again forced them downward. The air then rushed back into the lungs with a peculiar gurgling noise.

About once each minute this operation
was gone through with, the doctor listening for the faint beating of the unconscious man's heart, in the meantime. Sheriff Appleby sat at Sullivan's head, and a little knot of people stood in the dark corridor, watching the proceedings.

Died at 4 O'clock.

From ten o'clock in the afternoon,
this treatment was kept up, the movements being continuous. Then a feeble fluttering of the pulse could be felt, and it began to look as if Sullivan would rally. Little by little, the improvement being almost imperceptible, Sullivan began to gain. At length he took a natural breath, although the movement could hardly be seen. The doctor continued to work over him, and Sullivan continued to improve. At 3:30 o'clock he was beginning to breathe regularly, and chances for his recovery were quite good. But the doctor saw that the improvement was but temporary,
and shook his head when the onlookers spoke hopefully. Sullivan had swallowed the drug fully an hour before remedies were applied, and it had all been absorbed. From 3:30 to 3:45 o'clock Sullivan's breathing was natural, but hardly perceptible. At twenty minutes to four his pulse stopped beating, and in spite of the efforts of the physician to keep his heart beating, he began to sink, and at a quarter to four, nearly five hours after he was placed on the table, and six hours after he had taken the drug,
death came.

Helped His Mother.

During the time that Sullivan was on his good behavior, he was a great help to his mother, who lives in the First ward. All the housework had been done by him, and the cozy residence was as neat and clean as the best housekeeper in Janesville could have made it. Kitchen ware shone with the polish that he gave it; carpets were bright in their freedom from dust and litter; while the beds were made up with white spreads and pillow shams—all because of Sullivan's industry. He always dressed neatly and in good taste, and when sober was as bright as a dollar, and as intelligent a man as one would care to meet. Many are the bright sayings that were attributed to
"Jack," and when he was the foreman of the caning department of the old
"Victor factory," a solid silver cup was presented him by the employes who worked under him, in appreciation of his services to them.

SMALL BUT FIERCE FIRE RAGED

M. J. McCue's Livery Barn Had a Close
Call Saturday Night.

A small but fierce fire was discovered at M. J. McCue's livery barn, on North Bluff street, at 8:10 o'clock Saturday night and an alarm was sent in from box 28. A gas jet had been pushed against the boards with which the office was ceiling up, and an instant later the flames were creeping up the wall between the boards and the outside brick wall. Two ladies saw the fire, and sent a boy to the engine house to send in the alarm. Mr.
McCue's horses and the horses owned by Bowles & Hadden were all gotten out, and the department soon squelled the fire with small loss.

Had the fire had five minutes start there is no telling where it would have stopped.

MR. KEATOR SPEAKS
IN RANKIN'S PLACE

THE "MOULDER ORATOR" CAN-NOT COME HERE.

Change In Arrangements Made After
the Matter Had Been Settled—Mr.
Keator Is a Fine Speaker, and His Services Are In Great Demand—
Rally At Newark.

Janesville republicans may be disappointed to learn that Hon. A. C. Rankin, who was to open the Republican campaign here on September 7, cannot be present. But they need not be, for a speaker of national reputation will appear in his stead, in the person of the Hon. Theron P. Keator. Mr.
Keator has spoken here before, and his speeches have always awakened great enthusiasm. He can take Mr. Rankin's place very acceptably, and will make an address well worth hearing. That he is in demand is shown by the fact that Chairman Coe, of the state central committee, writes Chairman Vankirk, of the county committee, that he has dozens of calls for Mr.
Keator, that he cannot fill, as Keator will only be here six days. Mr. Rankin's engagement had to be canceled, because he was sent to Iowa after Chairman Coe thought he could send him here.

A republican rally will be held at the Newark town hall on Wednesday evening, September 2. F. P. Starr, of Afton, and Attorney A. E. Matheson, of this city, will speak.

THE IRISH TEAM WON THE GAME

Fox Halls were Defeated By a Score Of 17
to 9 Yesterday

Before a fair sized crowd, the Irish team defeated the Fox Halls in a well contested game of base ball, on Snipe hill, yesterday afternoon, by a score of 17 to 9. The features of the game were the dexterous plays by the Sullivan brothers, and the two flies caught by Steed. The team lined up as follows:

IRISH. Position. FOX HALLS.
Aiken. Catcher. Bagg. 1b.
Cummins. Pitcher. Joyce. 2b.
M. Sullivan. 3b. S. Sullivan. 4b.
T. Sullivan. 1b. Notan. 2b.
Tom Sullivan. 2b. Cooley. 3b.
Smith. 3b. Dougherty. 4b.
Dixon. 1b. Grogan. 2b.
Sweeney. 1b. Gentle. 3b.
McGairns. 1b. Holleran. 2b.

Accept the Challenge.

The Irish team sends the following to
The Gazette:

"We, the members of the Irish team,
do hereby accept the challenge recently issued by the "All Leaguers" and will be ready to meet them on Snipe Hill, next Sunday afternoon."

IRISH TEAM.

The "All Leaguers" team is composed of the best talent in the city,
all the players being in the professional class. McGinley and Crail will in all probability form their battery,
while it is expected that Sullivan and Aiken will play the points for the Irish.

Maroons, 23; Newsboys, 13.

The Janesville Maroons defeated the Newsboys in an exciting game of ball
on Bunker Hill, by a score of 23 to 13.

Costello, one of the crack pitchers
from the famous Irish team, came up on Bunker Hill looking for a reputation and he got it—in the neck Turneross, the left fielder for the Maroons, did excellent fielding, and the same may be said of his batting.

Costello pitched until the seventh inning and then Billy stepped into the box. He tried hard to win the game but could not. Captain Collins says he will play one more game with the Rivals, which will be captained by W. A. Rogers. The features of the game yesterday were Olson's two bagger and Case's three bagger. The battery for the Newsboys were Costello, Riley, Bliss and Collins, while Murphy and Dixon played the points for the Maroons. Fred Blakely umpired the game and gave excellent satisfaction. The players:

MAROONS. Position. NEWSBOYS.
Dixon. 1b. Bliss. 2b.
D. Murphy. 3b. Riley. 4b.
Goodwin. 1b. S. Sullivan. 2b.
Richter. 1b. Casey. 3b.
Olson. 2b. Davenport. 4b.
W. Murphy. 3b. Bergsterman. 4b.
Cooly. 1b. Dee. 2b.
Turneross. 1b. G. Sullivan. 2b.
Dolaney. 1b. Collins. 3b.

ED HALVERSON HOME AGAIN

Has Been On a 725 Mile Bicycle Trip—Other Cycle Notes

Edwin Halversen is home from a 725 mile trip on his bicycle. He left this city two weeks ago and after travelling to Chicago and Dixon, visited different points in Indiana. On the return trip he made the distance from Chicago to this city in twelve hours. The distance, by road, is 114 miles.

R. H. McKinney, J. G. DeLong, W.
W. Watt, Charles Stanton, Orton
Sutherland and Merton Stanton made the trip to Lake Koshkonong yesterday on their bicycles.

While Joseph Hied was driving out of his East Milwaukee street barn, a local cyclist ran into him. The cyclist was riding on the walk but luckily escaped serious injury.

EDWARD EHLE, a former Janesville resident, now of Chicago, is visiting in the city having made the trip on his wheel.

E. V. WHITON, Jr. and A. P. Burnham rode a tandem bicycle to Milton yesterday.

WAGES GO DOWN.

The claim that the result of free coinage would be an increase of prices, would seem to be a good reason why those who work for wages or salaries, should vote against it. If a man cannot prosper under the present cost of living, how could he hope to do so if that cost should be doubled? The answer of Mr. Bryan is, that there would be more money in the country with which to pay the higher prices. But the additional currency would not be gratuitously distributed to the people. They would have to work for it just as they do now, and would receive only so much of it in exchange for their labor as their employers were willing to pay them. In other words, the prices of food, fuel, clothing and so on would be raised, but it would not be in their power to raise their wages.

Wages in this country are now higher than in any other country in the world and the money in which they are paid has a greater purchasing power than has ever before been known. An increase of the prices of all commodities implies a reduction of that purchasing power; or, to state it in another way, the cheapening of the money received for labor means a lessening of wages, and there is no reason whatever to believe that such a loss would be made good by a general increase of wages equal to the advance in the cost of living.

RAILROAD MEN IN EARNST.

Railroad men have reason to distrust Bryan when they remember that he said in his speech of acceptance:

"Railroad rates have not been reduced to keep pace with falling prices, and besides these items there are many more."

As a matter of fact, railroad rates have been heavily reduced. Employees who have seen their wages slipping lower, and who know that few roads have declared dividends in the last two years understand how the reduction has worked. If Mr. Bryan will specify the other industries that, in his opinion, have not borne their share of business depression they will hit him at the polls as hard and as justifiably as the railroad men propose to do. It is something new for a presidential candidate to talk hard times, and then assert that the times have not been hard enough for some particular kinds of business.

HE SEES THE MAIN POINT.

McKinley made many votes by the wise moderation of his letter of acceptance. On the tariff he said:

"We are not committed to any special schedules or rates of duty. These are and should be always subject to change to meet new conditions."

This is common sense. The tariff is as completely dwarfed by silver in the present crisis as it was by slavery from Texas annexation to the secession war, but it is not dead. It will come up again some time—two years, four years hence, or when ever silverism gets buried beyond all possibility of resurrection. And when it does come up it will come up in a moderate form, which will be accepted by the great majority of people. But the immediate duty is to neither talk or think tariff, but to stamp out repudiation. Mr. McKinley's letter will make new votes for the republican party in every state.

Bryan's wholesale abuse of bankers is an unerring indication of his caliber. While there are individuals in the banking business whose acts have been such as to deserve abuse, as a class they are an absolutely necessary adjunct to the business world and they are neither better nor worse than the men they do business with. You will never find a successful man, whether producer, manufacturer, or merchant, abusing the banks.

There is plenty of food for thought in McKinley's suggestion to the farmers that what they need is more customers and that customers are not turned out at the mints.

The silver republicans of the west do not seem to have received much consideration at the hands of the democratic-populist combine. Perhaps they are believed to be too scarce.

No country has ever obtained prosperity by debasing its currency, although the attempt to do so has been frequently made.

The republican national committee should try to keep Bryan talking. Every speech he delivers makes Mc Kinley voters.

Henry Watterson says Bryan is an obstructionist. There's another word watch its him exactly—demagogue.

Watson and Sewall ought to hold a conference to try to find out which of them is being buneced the worst.

16 to 1 oratory—sixteen words of nonsense to one of sense—is a feature of popocratic meetings.

STOLE MRS. PERRY'S POCKET BOOK

Some One Took It While She Was in Another Room.

Mrs. Perry, who resides at 103 West Bluff street, reported to Chief Acheson this morning, that she had been robbed of her pocket book, containing eight dollars. Mrs. Perry stated that while she was getting ready to leave for St. Paul, she carried her pocket book containing the money, into the sitting room, where she laid it upon the table while she stepped into another room. She was absent but a minute, but when she returned, it was gone.

AN ELOVOY HOTEL IS BURNED.

The American House Went Up In Smoke This Morning.

Elroy, Wis., Aug. 21.—[Special]—Fire destroyed the American House at an early hour this morning. The Wilson Opera Company members had to be called early to catch a train or there might have been a loss of life. The loss on the hotel is $3,000, partly insured.

ENDEAVORERS PLAN FOR THE MEETING

LOCAL DELEGATES ARE MAKING ARRANGEMENTS.

They Will Sing a "Janesville Song" Written By a Janesville Lady, at the Madison Convention—Large Attendance Is Expected—Session To Be a Profitable One.

Janesville Christian Endeavor will attend the state convention in force and their inspiration will be "the Janesville song."

A committee held a meeting last night and made arrangements for the trip. The convention will be held at Madison from Sept. 24 to 27. It is expected that the convention will accomplish much and be one of the most successful and profitable yet held. Attorney A. M. Matheson, of this city, will be one of the speakers, as will also Raymond E. Frazier. Headquarters have been secured for the Bower City delegation and all plans for their comfort will be made. "Washington convention songs" will be sung and many other cities have their organization songs. Janesville will not be behind in this respect as the local delegation will sing an anthem written by a Janesville woman. It is sung to the tune of "Rally 'Round the Flag" and is as follows:

Janesville Song, Madison, '96.

O, Endeavor hearts, we greet you; from Janesville we have come,
Hoping to cheer and be cheered by you,
With loving thoughts and loyal, we've left our friends and home,
Hoping to help and be helped by you.

CHORUS.

Janesville for Jesus! This is our plan.
Christian Endeavor, our hope is in thee;
And we pledge our hearts that we'll ever
Ever loyal be,
Ever loyal to our endeavor.

To Christ and to his church beloved we'd ever loyal prove,
To serve Him faithfully in our endeavor,
And although we sometimes fail, yet steadfast
is our love,
And we have pledged ourselves to serve him
ever.

O, most lovely is our city, famed the bowers of beauty there,
Beautiful Janesville, Wisconsin,
And we long that Christ should reign, in a city
that's so fair,
Ruler be of Janesville, Wisconsin.

REV. E. H. PENCE RESUMES WORK.

The Presbyterian Pastor Is Home From His Vacation—Other Notes.

Rev. E. H. Pence has returned from his vacation, and preached to large congregations at the Presbyterian church yesterday, both morning and evening.

The Christian Endeavor society had a very interesting meeting, led by Miss Grace Kirk. The topic was "The Happiness of Heaven." There was some discussion on the question as to whether we will feel at home when we first enter heaven. Rev. Munroe made a bright talk bringing out the thought that heaven is in our hearts, and we need not be concerned about its geographical position. A short time was spent in talking of the state convention. It is expected that there will be at least one hundred delegates from Janesville.

The society is beginning to plan for the fall work, and expect to make special efforts along the line of missions and good citizenship. William G. Warren of Baltimore, a humorist, monologist and impersonator will give an entertainment in the lecture room of the church, Wednesday evening.

The monthly business meeting and social of the Y. P. S. C. E. will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wright, 58 Park avenue, Friday evening, Sept. 4.

THE Y. M. C. A.'S ANNUAL MEETING
It Will Be Held At the Building on September 2.

The annual meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association of Janesville will be held at the Association building, on Wednesday evening, September 2, at 8 o'clock. At this meeting the officers and directors for the ensuing year will be elected and any other business transacted as may properly come before the meeting.

E. E. LOOMIS, President.
H. J. CUNNINGHAM, Secretary.

SULLIVAN INQUEST HELD TODAY

Legal Inquiry Into the Cause of His Death—The Funeral.

An inquest, to ascertain the manner and form of the death of John H. Sullivan, was held by Justice Richardson, this afternoon.

After hearing the testimony the jury brought in a verdict that the deceased committed suicide by taking laudanum.

The funeral will be held from the family residence at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Sup't. Mayne Endorses Professor Cohahn.

TO THE PEOPLE OF JANESVILLE: Having received letters of indorsement for Professor Otto Cohahn from city superintendents in Wisconsin, and having knowledge of the method of instruction used by him in his work, I most heartily recommend him and his method to such as desire a speaking knowledge of the French and the German languages.

The explanation of the method and a trial lesson will be given, free, next Wednesday evening, at the Y. M. C. A. building. I bespeak for Professor Cohahn a large audience and a respectful hearing.

D. D. MAYNE,
City Superintendent.

DEATH ENDS EARTHLY WOES

Funeral of Mrs. R. Wiggan.

To a grave on a shaded knoll in Oak Hill cemetery, overlooking the home where she spent so many happy years, all that was mortal of Mrs. Rebecca H. Wiggan was borne. In every way the spot seemed a fitting one—its beauty and perfect peace typifying most happily the life that had been ended.

Funeral services were held in the home on Jackson street at 2:30. Rev. Dr. Hodge officiated and from his close knowledge of the departed one's character he drew comforting lessons for the bereaved, coupling them with the promise of eternal life. Mrs. Wiggan's work among the children in the Baptist Sunday school was referred to at considerable length. Many who had been her pupils stood about the coffin as the service ended. Before and after Dr. Hodge's remarks there was singing by a quartette—Mrs. Charles F. Yates, Mrs. E. M. Hyzer, C. F. Yates and William Bladen. M. G. Jeffris, S. B. Smith, A. F. Hall, I. F. Whiffen, F. S. Lawrence and C. E. Bowles were the pall bearers.

Daniel Connelly.

After a lingering illness of two years with stomach trouble, Daniel Connelly died this morning at 4 o'clock at his home, 351 South High street, aged fifty-two years. For the past thirty-seven years Mr. Connelly has been a resident of this city, all of which time he has been a faithful servant in the Northwestern Railroad Company, at the local round house. Besides a wife, five sons and three daughters, all of this city, are left to mourn his death. Funeral services will be held from St. Patrick's church Wednesday morning, at 9 o'clock, the interment to be in Mount Olivet cemetery.

Jane Scullion.

Jane Scullion, the sixteen-year-old daughter of Hugh Scullion, died at 10:30 o'clock Saturday evening, at the home of her father, in Milton Junction. Miss Scullion has been ill for the past two years, with consumption. Besides her father, she leaves a sister and three brothers. Her mother died a year ago. Funeral services were held this morning at 9 o'clock, from the Milton Junction Catholic church, and the interment was at Whitewater.

Albert Boomer.

Mr. and Mrs. George K. Colling, and Mrs. H. E. Merrill of this city, attended the funeral of Albert Boomer of Cary, Ill., yesterday. Mrs. Boomer being a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Colling. Mr. Boomer died Thursday as the result of a stroke of paralysis sustained four years ago, and from which he never fully recovered.

MANY FOLK WENT ON THE EXCURSION

BIG CROWD LEFT FOR ST. PAUL THIS MORNING.

Both the Railroads Had a Rush of Business In Consequence—Sharon and Beloit Delegation Go Through Here—Many Special Trains Run—List of Those Who Left.

Two whole train loads of Janesville and Rock county people left for St. Paul this morning—some to attend the Grand Army reunion, and others to visit friends at the "Twin Cities." The first train left on the C. & N. W. road, in charge of Conductor Cannon, and hauled by engine number 622. It was half an hour late in getting started, but finally pulled out with its big load, with the idea of "making up the time." The train consisted of eight coaches and a baggage car, and all the coaches were full. About a score of Line City people were aboard, and thirty people from Sharon had also been provided for.

The second train went over the St. Paul road, leaving at 9:30 o'clock. This train also carried a large number of people, and among those who went were:

SUITS MAY FOLLOW CLINTON'S SCARE

MORE COMPLICATIONS MAY YET ARISE.

Prosecutions and Claims For Damages Likely To Be the Result of the Diphtheria "Epidemic"—No New Cases of the Disease—All Are Quarantined.

Prosecutions and damage suits may grow out of the diphtheria cases at Clinton. As yet such plans are but rumors, but it is said that they will assume definite shape in a short time.

Many people, it is said, favor such a move, but nothing can be done until the people who are sick, and the others interested, can appear as witnesses.

The Clinton board of health is active, and all precautions are being taken. So far as is known, there are now no cases outside of the quarantined families, and further spread is not feared.

"Feeling is pretty high in Clinton," said a man who frequently visits that village, this morning. "I do not know what will be done in the matter, but I think that 'something will drop' after a while. Prosecutions and damage suits are talked of, but of course nothing can be done now. When the sick recover, and the disease is stamped out, then some action will be taken if at all."

EDGERTON ??? EVANSVILLE???

A Red Hot Ball Game Will Be Played Saturday

A red hot base ball game is promised at Evansville next Saturday afternoon between the Edgerton and Evansville teams. This game is likely to be one of the best of the season, and a good sized delegation will attend from this city. Janesville players will take most prominent part. Sullivan, Brewer and Holloran will play with the Evansville team, while the Edgertons have engaged Morrissey and Wilbur.

Why He Isn't a Commodore.

Captain Allen V. Reed of the United States navy, who was recently retired on three-fourths pay, was debarred from promotion to commodore because of his personal habits. The court of inquiry

CAPTAIN ALLEN V. REED. appointed to investigate the charges of slovenliness made against him reported against his promotion. It is alleged that he wore no underclothes or socks and used his bathtub for a potato bin. Captain Reed has been more than 50 years in the service.

He Owns a Big Island. M. Henri Menier, known in Paris as the Chocolate King, is a French millionaire who is a sportsman on a vast scale. He has recently bought the island of Anticosti in the gulf of St. Lawrence and is stocking it with game, reserving one end for colonization. The island is

M. HENRI MENIER. about 140 miles in length and from 25 to 35 miles wide. It contains 3,845 square miles, and M. Menier owns every foot of it, with the exception of the grounds on which are located the four lighthouses and the government telegraph stations. He paid only $260,000 for it, buying the island in one lump from a company of British speculators, who paid $1,000,000 for it about 15 years ago.

A Basis of Calculation.

She arose, smiling, from the dentist's chair. "How much do I owe you?" she asked. "Three dollars and a half," was the reply. "Are you sure that's right?" she inquired, suspiciously. "Quite sure."

Forgetfulness. The man who beats the lottery forgets that he's been poor. The chap whose aching tooth is out remembers it no more. The victor, crowned, forgets the strain it took to win the laurel. The lovers, after all's made up, forget their bitter quarrel. Likewise the ice man honest is, when he puts up the price. He forgets the chilly winter, with its overplus of ice! —Indianapolis Journal.

Pointing the Resemblance. She—Don't you think, Mr. Iamsum has the looks and the bearing of a statesman? He—Indeed I do. He reminds me forcibly of the two greatest Americans ever connected with our government. "O, how nice. Whom do you think he resembles?" "He strikes me as having a Websterian body and a Clay head." —Detroit Free Press.

Why He Doubted the Adage. "Well, here is the money you've been tormenting me for," said a rich uncle to his spendthrift nephew; "use it wisely, and remember that a fool and his money are soon parted." "I don't know about that," said the young scapegrace. "I've been coaxing you more than a week for this." —Tit-Bits.

Explaining a Phenomenon. Hard Character—I know I've been a hard drinker, but there's one thing I can say, anyhow—I very seldom touch a drop on Sunday. Missionary—Ah! That is a good point, indeed. Hard Character—Yes. I generally spend all my money Saturday night. —Town Topics.

The Same Stick. Lady Finehealth (at hotel entrance)—No, I have no money to spare for you. I don't see why an able-bodied man like you should go around begging. Lazy Tramp—I s'pose, mum, it's 'er about the same reason that a healthy woman like you boards at a hotel instead of keepin' house. —N. Y. Weekly.

She Was Detained. Miss Matilda Snowball—You looks mighty pale and feeble like. Miss Inkie White—No wonder when I tole yer dat dis is de fust time I has been out in six mums. "What was de matter?" "I was detained in the county jail." —Texas Sifter.

Longing for a Soaker. Hobbs—Queer, isn't it, that it never rains when one wants it to. Dobbs—Garden in need of rain? Hobbs—No; it's myself. My wife gave me a new umbrella for a birthday present, and it hasn't rained since. —Detroit Free Press.

She'd Trump It. She has no heart, I know it By looking in her face. And, therefore, as we sit at whist I dare not lead my ace. —Detroit Tribune.

A business man is not the most patient creature in the world. He cannot wait to hear any long-drawn-out story of the cause of his ailment. He doesn't care two straws about a fine spun theory of how he should treat himself. He may be predisposed to scrofula, or consumption. "That," he will tell you "has nothing to do with the case." He wants to be well. If he can be cured, write out a prescription and send in your bill. So, here's the first part of the proposition. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a microbe hunter and killer. Many persons of scrofulous blood, encourage the breaking out of unsightly sores, to prevent the disease going to the lungs. There is no need of this state of dread and discomfort. Purify the blood. It can be done. "Golden Medical Discovery" will cure 98 per cent. of all consumptive cases, also of all other lingering, bronchial, throat and lung diseases. Sold by all medicine dealers.

Advertising what you have not got or what you don't do is worse than not advertising at all. You can't well be too careful about this. Make your ads. strictly true in letter and in spirit. I believe that the majority of business men do this now, but as it is the most important thing about advertising, it will bear repeating and reiterating.

STATE OF WISCONSIN—COUNTY COURT FOR ROCK COUNTY.—In Probate. Notice is hereby given that at a special term of the county court, to be held in and for said county at the court house, in the city of Janesville, in said county, on the third Tuesday, being the 21st day of July, 1930, at 9 o'clock a.m. the following matter will be heard and considered: The application of Carlos Brown for the appointment of an administrator of the estate of Edward J.
